Legacy Users' Group: For those members using the Legacy program the next meeting for this group will be held on Sunday 4th October 2015 at 1pm. Once again Sue McKenzie will be on hand to answer your questions so if you have a laptop, bring it along but make sure the battery is charged. As with all such groups the cost is $1 and for members only. For further information about the group email Carol Browne at cbrowne@onthenet.com.au

Writers' Group: The writers' group continues to meet regularly once a month as a self-help group under the guidance of author Robert Likeman to discuss different writing styles and the various means of publishing relevant segments of a family history. Homework is normally set at the end of each meeting and writing efforts are then discussed at the following meeting. This month the task set has been to write an obituary and these will be discussed at the next meeting. Normally meetings are on the first Tuesday of the month; this month the date has been changed due to unforeseen circumstances to Monday 5th October 2015 (Queensland Labour Day) at 2.30pm. The cost is $1 and please wear your membership badge. All members are welcome but please contact Murray Wilson at munjwilson@optusnet.com.au.

Introduction To Family History Class: The next class will be held on Monday 19th October 2015 at 9.30am. (please note the change of time). These classes are invaluable to newcomers beginning their research. Bookings are essential as numbers are limited so phone Pam Oldham on 5594 0610 or email her at pamllew3@gmail.com to secure a place.

Computer Group: Well, we broke down at least one brick wall at the last meeting. At the next meeting, on Wednesday evening 21st October 2015 at 7pm, Fay Carbis will be showing us the network computers which have had an updated virtual CD installed. There are several changes to the way these computers now run and can be utilised for your research so come along and avail yourself of the changes. Once again this meeting is for members only and the cost is $1. Contact Ann Metcher at metcher@bigpond.com for further information.
