Introduction to NAA collection & RecordSearch & Moments in Migration

with Eve Terry

Introduction to NAA collection & RecordSearch

This talk provides an overview of records within the collection relevant for family history research, with the most popular records being immigration and defence service records. RecordSearch is the database where you can find out:

- What is held in the collection
- How to locate the records you want
- How to order records
- How to view digital copies of records

Moments in Migration: exploring the immigrant experience in images

The National Archives of Australia holds a rich photographic collection documenting the migrant experience - from the often long and tiring journey to Australian shores, to settling into life in their adopted communities. This seminar will chart the migrant story through images of life in migrant accommodations camps, migrant contributions to the workforce and participation in cultural life in Australia.
